

Members wishing to learn more about using the club web site should do a "Member Login" and proceed to the Club Documents/Internal page (visible only to club members who have done a Member Login).

There, you will find several short "how-to" documents (written in plain English) on how to use different features of the web site.